The guest lecture of Mr. Ram Pande, Director My job institution arranged on topic of “Job opportunity in Banking & Insurance Sector”
(for B.Sc.-III year)

Entry Services and training and placement cell organised the guest lecture of Mr. Ram Pande director of my job institution for banking sector. He shared knowledge with the BSc final year students. In his lecture he had given the information regarding to the jobs and opportunity in the banking sector for the graduate all braches student. For banking sector it was essential that you were the good mathematician as well as you had knowledge of technological. Students must possess the fluency in communication skill. In his lecture, he said to the students that, the quality and the eligibility possesses by you but you were less confidence to succeed in the banking sector because you were not be a prepared the syllabus and techniques which are the basically required for banking sector. With the hard work students must be required the proper directions of the preparation of the examination. This all facilities were available in their institution “my job”. In the next few years, there will a plenty of the jobs in a banking sector, but they required the talented and the skillful personality for this job. For that, all the students start their preparation from beginning of graduation level, if they wanted success in banking sector. Banking sector was opening to all graduated in any faculty.

His lectures was very beneficial to the students .We were thanks to the professor Ram Pande director of my job Institution behalf of Entry in services and T &P cell.

“How to prepared resume & Video resume”

Zara Consultancy headquarters at Bangalore & T& P Cell of Shri Shivaji Arts, Commerce & Science College, Akot. on dated 9.01.2015 & 10.01.2015

Entry in services and training and placement cell of Shri Shivaji Arts Commerce and Science College Akot organised the two day workshop with the collaboration with Zara consultancy private limited how to make the resume and video resume.

The representative of the Zara consultancy private had guided the students how to prepare the resume for all the graduate final year students & PG final year students. All the companies and the employer had seen your resume for your academic performance, your personality, participation was must be mentioned in the resume. Resume was the first step of the candidate to represent his/her overall academic and personalities to employer.

So, representative of the Zara consultancy private limited guided the student regarding to the preparation of resume for companies and others. They suggested the few steps to the students how to represent you in the resume for the different companies. One resume was not sufficient for all the company. He advised to the students that they had prepared more than 2 or 3 resume for the different IT companies as per requirements.

Now today many Companies' s HR called the interview of the candidate by see their representation in the video resume. The preliminary in video resume how candidate represent yourself in the videos, how you have to highlight your academic and co-curricular activities in the resume and your skill was now importance to go in the video resume.

They were allotted the specific format to the students and made video resume in which student were Express their academic performance and co-curricular participation with their identities. The 64 students had made them their video resume with the Zara consultancy private limited.

This resume were benefited to the final year students because most of the student were fail to record their own identities and academic and co-curricular participation in front of the camera means they were not express ourselves to the others. This difficult was common to all candidates.

The special counselling session was arranged for such type of students and they were advised to learn his/ her resume and didn't fear when you were read your resume in front of the camera. These activities really he helped in future to those students who passed final year and face the interview. Everyone had known that, the first question in the interview was introducing you. If you couldn't be answer properly of these questions, then it would create a negative impression.

So we are very thankful to the of representatives of Zara consultancy private limited Mr. Milind Moharir(9923374825), Camera Operator Purushotam Patil & Assistant Mayur Bhujbal, Hon'ble Principal Dr. A.L. Kulat and supporting staff
